Re: Letter of support: Jason Carvalho, Canadian Social Entrepreneurs' Foundation

I've had the pleasure of working with Jason Carvalho on two projects for television broadcast. The first was for Global Tribe and involved Ms. Jane Goodall and the second a support piece for the Greenpeace organization. Jason is a young man of no small ambition. He has the determination to succeed in whatever capacity he chooses and the intelligence to seek guidance and mentoring in areas where he is learning. He is the kind of young Canadian that makes me proud to call myself Canadian.

I've been lucky to have worked with socially minded people like Simon Jackson, Jane Goodall, the Dali Lama and most recently Jason Carvalho. Canada and indeed the world is fortunate that we have these well intentioned individuals in our midst. As corporate and governmental leaders we need to help develop our young leaders with mentoring and support in whatever capacity we are able.

I'll support Jason in Video production services in the future because I know his intentions are responsible and admirable. He is an individual who's interest is the in the best interest of Canada and of our youth. I'm glad to be a part of that. I hope you will too.

Sincerely,

Gregory Stirling
